A Study of Entrepreneurs’ Spirit in Khadi and Village Industries

A. Sisubalan¹, Dr. E. Raja Justus²

Abstract: Mahathma Gandhi, father of the Nation, mentioned that the Villages are the backbones of India. Thus the Government of India in its annual budget allocates more funds for the development of villages. Most of the funds allocated are aimed at inculcating the entrepreneurial spirit. In spite of the strenuous efforts the industrial growth is yet to gain momentum. This study aims at detecting the entrepreneurial spirit among the rural people in commencing Khadi and Village industries.

Keywords: Employment, entrepreneurs, Khadi industry, village industries

¹ Associate Professor, Sri Paramakalyani College, Alwarkurichi.
² Professor in Dept. of Management Studies, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli.