Developing Reading Skills among L2 Learners with a Rural Background

Dr. Alis Sofia, A.¹

Abstract

Reading is an important skill to master in order to learn English. Today, in the era of technology and greater inventions, reading habit is being phased out among learners. Technology has overtaken one of the pleasurable acts of humankind. In this scenario, there are learners who fight tooth and nail to learn English. They are, without being exposed to reading English, chasing the rainbows. The fact is that they do not know to read English. This article chips in their cause to help them master reading skill.
