P.G. Board of Studies in English

The first meeting of the newly constituted Board of Studies for P.G. English was conducted in the E-Conference hall of our college on Wednesday, 25th February, 2015. All the members of the Board including the two subject experts, University Representative, Alumni Representative and an Industrialist were present. The meeting began with a welcome address by the H.O.D (P.G.) and Chairman of the Board. Resolution Passed:

The Board members discussed the finalisation of the proposed new syllabus to be introduced for students joining M.A. English in July 2015 and onwards for a period of three years. The Board ratified the course structure first. It introduced many changes in the existing syllabus, with the CBCS pattern of 18 core subjects, one NME paper and another Core Elective paper. Altogether, 20 papers were proposed for the four semesters. Guidelines issued by IQAC were followed for framing the syllabus and allotting marks for Dissertation (Project).

While continuing the traditional core papers like British Literature IV papers, Indian Writing in English, Canadian Literature, American Literature and Commonwealth Literature, many modifications and improvements were suggested and accepted. Regarding the Language papers, in addition to the paper on the History of English Language, a paper on English Language Teaching was introduced.

The usual paper on Journalism was totally revised with the introduction of a modern text for Print and Electronic Media. In addition to the usual Research Methodology, new papers like Feminist Writing, Contemporary Indo-English Fiction and New Literatures in English were introduced, these by making the new syllabus innovative for English learners. For NME paper, a new paper on English for Business Communication was finalised. Regarding the project, all necessary guidelines were suggested to make the Dissertation meaningful.

On the whole, all the members participated in the healthy discussion by giving valuable opinions.

M.Phil English
Resolved to request the management to start M.Phil English.

The same Board introduced a new syllabus for the proposed M.Phil English course to be introduced in July 2016. The following papers were finalised:

- 1. Critical Theory
 - 2. Research Methodology & Thesis Writing
 - 3. Area papers : Literature in Translation
OR Contemporary Global Fiction
 - 4. Dissertatation & Viva Voce
- } I Sem
- } - II Sem.

All the relevant details unitwise were discussed threadbare and special guidelines for Dissertation were finalised. The one year course covers the above said papers. These were fruitful discussions unitwise in each paper.

The meeting finally ended with a vote of thanks by the UOI-HOD of the unaided English Department.
