One-Day General Medical Camp

Date: 11.04.2025

A one-day General Medical Camp was successfully conducted at Parkithmanagar, Tirunelveli on 11th April 2025, as part of the NSS Special Camp, jointly organized by the NSS and RRC units of Sadakathullah Appa College in association with Vasan Eye Care

Hospital, Tirunelveli. The primary aim of the camp was to provide free general medical services and raise awareness about preventive healthcare among the local residents. A team of doctors and medical staff from Vasan Eye Care Hospital offered general health check-ups, eye screenings, and basic medications for common ailments.

A total of 84 members of the general public from Parkithmanagar benefitted from this initiative. The camp saw enthusiastic participation from NSS and RRC volunteers, as well as active support from Dr. M. Abdul Rahuman, Convener of the Red Ribbon Club and Mr. K. Ganesh Kumar, RRC Program Officer of Sadakathullah Appa College, whose involvement ensured the smooth and successful execution of the event.

The beneficiaries expressed sincere gratitude for the timely medical support, and the camp stood as a testament to the collective spirit of community service and social responsibility fostered among student volunteers. Overall, the camp was a meaningful outreach initiative that brought quality healthcare closer to the people in need.
